Teaching Notes—ACTS 3:1-11 “Peter & John Heal the Lame Man” Speaker—Mike Jarvis

Home Group Discussion & BIBLE STUDY for this week:

Read Acts 3:1-11

1. Many feel Jesus healed everyone around Him, yet, Jesus had entered the temple many times. Do you think the crippled man had been there when Jesus entered?
2. If so, why wouldn't Jesus have healed him?
3. What do you think was significant about where the lame man was laying?
4. How do you feel Peter knew to tell this person to walk? Discuss being led by the Spirit.
5. Notice v 6&7 then read Luke 8:49-56 and 9:1-2.
Does this explain why Peter and John could act so boldly?
6. Who does Peter say healed the crippled man? Is it clear that it wasn't by his own power?
7. Share experiences of healing or miracles you have heard or seen. Do you think they were of God?
8. Have you ever felt the need for healing, either physical, Spiritual or from a wounded broken heart?
9. Read Ps 69:20 Has God used you as he used Peter and John to minister to a hurting person, possibly heal a friend that is was hurting, lost, confused or broken hearted?
10. Do you feel the healing of the heart is as important as healing of the physical body?
