Teaching Notes—ACTS 3:12-26 “Peter Preaches in the Temple” Speaker—Jeff Warren

Home Group Discussion & BIBLE STUDY for this week:

READ Acts 3:12-26

1. Why was Peter surprised by the crowd's reaction to the miracle?
2. Relate Acts 3 to 2 Timothy 4:2. What are the comparisons?
3. Does “being prepared to give an answer” just mean what we say or how we live our lives? How can we relate this example to our own lives and why is it important to have your words and actions working in unity with each other?
4. What is the major difference between Peter in these verses and Peter in Matthew 26:69-75? Is the difference just in what he says or the authority he now has? What made the change? (Hint: it is in Acts 2)
5. Can someone share a time when you felt the power of the Holy Spirit take over in your life and you had a boldness that seemed outside of yourself? How did you feel? Powerful, Humbled, Joyous, Shocked, elaborate....
6. How does Peter demonstrate humility and honor to God by his reaction to people thinking he was responsible for the miracle?
7. How does the charge that Peter makes to the crowd relate to Romans 5:8?
8. What are ways we can be sure that we are filled with the Holy Spirit and are able to act with authority and boldness in situations where we are met with people who don't believe or wonder what it is we have that they don't? Look at Ephesians 6:10-20.
