A Ministry to G.E.D. Students??

There are a number of people who want/need to get their GED degree (high school equivalency).

Is there interest in forming a group to encourage students toward this great goal??
Are there tutors and “encouragers” who would be wiling to help occasionally?

If you want to get your GED or want to help, talk to Pastor Rob

I Corinthians

Tough Love

Text—I Corinthians 5:1-13

Living for God in an Ungodly Culture

Home Group Discussion & BIBLE STUDY for this week:

- Read I Corinthians 5. When we have gotten to the point of seeing someone's unrepented sin that we send them away from church, what safeguards do we take for our own hearts? Can you find a relationship between Matthew 7:3-4 and this process?
- Read Isaiah 6:1-6. Why is it we are rationalizing our sin we can't picture this holy God? Do you think our casual attitude towards our own sins would change if we did always see God as He is seen here? How do change that perception of God?
- What is the role of the Holy Spirit in I Corinthians 5?
- Have you ever experienced this: asking someone to leave the church because of a refusal to deal with and repent of a sin? What was the outcome?
- Why is this passage as relevant to churches today as it was to the Corinthian church? How is it especially crucial for us given our climate of "tolerance"?
- How do "tolerance", "acceptance" and "loving the sinner not the sin" differ from each other? How do we as Christians show this love and not come off as "judgmental" to a culture that wants to brand us as such?
- How do we protect ourselves from rebuking sin as God has called us to do and not becoming our own "judge and jury"?
