SERMON NOTES “Imitate Me” Ephesians 5:1-2

Pastor Rob Classen

It is humanly impossible to imitate God...

The 6-Step Apology (From Transformational Leadership)

1. State the offense - “I did it”
2. Admit you were wrong - “I was wrong”
3. Apologize - “I am sorry”
4. Ask is they can forgive you - “Will you, or can you forgive me?”
5. Ask of accountability - “I give you permission to hold me accountable to this apology”
6. Ask for anything else that might be there - “Is there anything else?”

If you do this enough..... you will CHANGE!

Preparing for the Lord's Supper...

Home Group Discussion & BIBLE STUDY for this week:

- Who was one of your heroes growing up? How did you want to be like them?
- Read Ephesians 5:1-9
- How do you think a non-believer thinks or feels about Paul's opening statement— “Imitate God in everything you do”?
- How do you think most Christ-followers feel about the same phrase? Does vs. 2 help you see imitating God as a possibility or does it just seem like the same unattainable goal?
- What 3 standards did Paul set for Christian living in vs. 1, 2, & 8?
- Re-read verses 5-6. Do these words scare you? Convict you? Inspire you? Make you angry? Or something else?
- What should characterize the lives of those living “as children of light? (v. 8)
- If one phrase or verse from our passage became your motto for the week, which would you choose?
