Sermon Notes:

Home Group Discussion & BIBLE STUDY for this week:

Psalm 27—Steps to Communion with God

- Remember a time when you were in complete darkness. Where were you and how did it make you feel?
- Read Psalm 27. What is the tone of the writing? What stands out to you from the first reading?
- During a difficult time we often say, "What am I going to do about this?" What is David's response in vs. 1-3 during a difficult time?
- Rewrite vs. 4 in your own words and share with the group. What are the benefits to regular involvement and attendance with your church family?
- Vs. 5-6 are full of promises. How would you restate them to fit in 2016?
- After spending time with God, David responds with assurance in vs. 9-12. What is he trusting the Lord for specifically?
- Paul also gives us a powerful statement about how our problems shrink when we are in constant communion with God. Read Romans 5:1-5 to see firsthand what faith does for you in your problems. List as many blessings and benefits as you can find.
- Can you remember a time when Romans 5:1-5 was true for you?
