Home Group Discussion & BIBLE STUDY for this week:

1. How has the Lord provided for you recently? Take a minute to think back over the past few weeks and share how he has met your wants/needs.
2. Read Psalm 23 as a group. What one word do you believe sums up how David feels about his Shepherd?
What do you think compels David to follow his Shepherd?
3. Read John 10:11-15. Jesus is our Good Shepherd. Are we good sheep?
How would you describe a good sheep?
4. We discussed the 8 redemptive names of God that are illustrated within this Psalm. Which name moves you the most? Share why with the group.
5. In our broken world, there is much to fear. As a child, how were you taught to deal with fear or stress? How has that changed now that you are an adult?
6. What does "fear no evil" mean for you? God does not promise to remove all the dangers or sadness of life. How, then, can we have peace and live without fear? Read John 16:33.
7. Do you see "dwelling in the house of the Lord" as a heavenly or an earthly state? Can you see how it can be both?
8. The Hebrew word translated to "follow" in verse 6, actually means pursue. Do you feel pursued by God?
