Sermon Notes: "WE THE PEOPLE"- Recovery Road

Matthew 7:3-5

Andy Stanley DVD

Introduction: As a church, we have a duty to talk about culture when it intersects from Scripture. It's easy to look at faith through the lens of our politics, but we should look at our politics through the lens of faith.

Tension: We've all seen superstars and businesses go bankrupt and we've all thought: "If I had that...I would never screw up like them." And we think, "If I was in charge of the country, we wouldn't be in this mess." Whether it's a bankrupt superstar or a bankrupt nation, look beneath the surface and you'll see that there was never a cash flow problem, but a management problem. Financial problems simply expose the real problem. As a nation, we have abused prosperity. That's led to...

- A discipline problem
- An entitlement problem—we're spoiled
- We have a greed problem—the more you have, the less you give
- We have a failure of nerve problem— we know what to do, but don't do it

As a nation, we are reaping what we have sown. But mature people don't look for someone to blame, they look for something to do!

Scripture: Matthew 7:3-5. Jesus said the solution wasn't to examine others, but to examine yourself. A hypocrite expects someone to do what they aren't willing to do themselves. Recovery is going to begin with WE, not THEY. It's time to take personal responsibility.

Application Questions:

- Are you undisciplined with your money? If so, you have no right to complain about government spending
- Are you greedy?
- Are you all paid up in your child support?
- Are you on disability even though you could work?
- Are you stealing from your employer?
- Are you doing drugs?
