Sermon Notes: "The God who Draws You In" Exodus 2:1-10

Jenny Jones

Review: Exodus 1:22 Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people: "Every Hebrew boy that is born you must throw into the Nile, but let every girl live."

Pharaoh had a plan for the Israelites (satan)

God had a plan for the Israelites

READ- read the passage together twice

REMEMBER- try to do this from memory

RESEARCH- discuss the questions that come to mind

Goshen- Genesis 45

Genesis 46:3-4- "I will go down to Egypt with you"

Goshen- Hebrew for "Drawing Near"

The Papyrus Basket

"tebah" translates to Ark

Genesis 6:14

Moses

"mashah"- "Draw Out"

Psalm 18:13-19

Jesus

John 6:44

John 12:32

"helkó"- "Draw In"

Home Group Discussion & BIBLE STUDY for this week:

- Moses was born at a time when the odds were stacked against him. But that shouldn't cause us to overlook what he had in his favor. Can you name some things he had going for him, at birth?
- In the face of the power of the Egyptian government, the act of placing her baby in a basket on the Nile seems hopeless, yet it changed everything for an entire nation. Can you think of other times in the Bible when God's hand has prevailed in small acts?
- What caused Pharaoh's daughter to disobey his command?
- Moses was raised primarily in an Egyptian palace. Can you see how this may have played into God's plans for Moses in the future?
- What does baby Moses have in common with baby Jesus?
- Read John 21: 1-11. The word "helkó", which means "drawing in", is used here to describe the act of Simon Peter dragging the net full of fish ashore. Knowing that Jesus used this word to describe how God "draws" us in to Him, what do you think Jesus wanted to relay to the disciples here?
