SERMON NOTES "A Sermon for Rob"

1 Thessalonians 2:1-12

Rob Classen

Group #1—vs. 2 & 3

Group #2—vs. 4

Group #3—vs. 5

Group #4—vs. 6 & 7

Group #5—vs. 8

During my normal day, how frequently do I think about intentionally being a godly example?

Group
#6—vs. 9 & 10

Home Group Discussion & BIBLE STUDY for this week:

- What was the craziest thing someone ever tried to sell you ?
- What turns you off about the way some present the Gospel? How could you avoid those mistakes?
- Read 1 Thessalonians 2:3-6 - Which of the character flaws mentioned in these verses is the greatest problem in the Church in general? Why do you say that? How can you prevent one of these character flaws from overtaking you?
- What's an example of pleasing God vs. pleasing people in your life? What's happens when we try to please people? (vs. 4)
- Paul obviously had "family" on the mind in vss. 7-11. What do the images of mother and father say about our discipling relationships in our church?
- Of all the positive characteristics of a Christian worker which do you most want to develop?
- During my normal day, how frequently do I think about intentionally being a godly example?
