2. What's the difference between knowing about a person and knowing that person? Can we say that the same difference applies to knowing God? Why or why not?
3. Read I John 2:1-8. When John talks about knowing God in these verses, is he talking about something intellectual or something different? What words/phrases lead you to this conclusion?
4. Why do you think John connects the importance of knowing God to how we act in life and to the choices we make?
5. Read John 17:3. What does Jesus say about those who know God? Why is this so important?
